LARGE DEALS GO TO RECORD

Californian Acquires Sixty Acres Above Georgetown, Which Will Be Improved and Placed on Market.
Much Interest Shown in Proposed Home of District Labor Unions.

According to the best information obtainable from real estate men, inquiry for property has increased during the past week. A number of sales, including lots, large tracts of ground, residences and single sites for homes have been made recently. Operators in suburban real estate are preparing for the spring campaign.
The early season bids fair to result in a good volume of business, taking into account the business depression and trouble in securing loans for the past months.
Building operations are starting in earnest, and while there may not be an actual boom in building this year, the spring and summer activity along this line will be healthful and satisfactory.

Iroquois Apartment Sold.
The largest deals of the week were the sale of the Iroquois apartment house, on N street, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, by John L. and Bates Warren to Dr. Pease, of New York, who took over title to this property, giving in part payment a tract of ground of eleven acres on Connecticut avenue extended, near Chevy Chase, which the Messrs. Warren will probably develop by the building of houses thereon, which will be placed on the market in due time. The apartment house was appraised in the deal at $25,000, and the eleven acres of ground at $50,000, the balance of the purchase being cash, or its equivalent.

The transfer of another large piece of land was made by T. H. Pickford to Representative Hayes, of California, who acquires sixty acres lying west of Georgetown University, which will be subdivided, improved, and placed on the market as sites for suburban homes. This tract was received by Mr. Pickford several weeks ago as part payment for the Naples apartment house. In that deal the land was appraised at $85,000, and it has now been sold to Mr. Hayes and others associated with him, it is understood, for $100,000. The deal was made through the offices of Liebermann & Hawn and Ellerson & Wemple.

Sales by Liebermann & Hawn.
Liebermann & Hawn yesterday announced the following transactions: For Dr. E. H. McComas, the new four-story building at the northwest corner of Fourth and L streets northwest, occupied by a drug store and market store on the ground floor and by the Intercontental Correspondence University on three floors above. This property was purchased as an investment at a consideration of about $90,000.

To L. Cabell Williamson, the handsome residence at 24 Iowa circle, which he will occupy as a home.
For Mrs. Juliet M. Williamson, the building lot at the southwest corner of Sixteenth street and Florida avenue northwest, fronting 80.83 feet on Sixteenth street and 107.55 feet on Florida avenue, containing about 6,100 square feet. Consideration, $1,000.

In connection with Walter H. Acker, for Charles W. King, lot 19, block 40, north grounds Columbian College, fronting 59 feet on the south side of Harvard street, west of Fourteenth street. Price, about $1,000.

Sales by Thomas J. Fisher & Co.
Thomas J. Fisher & Co. report the sale to Benjamin F. Queen of the property at 115 B street southeast, fronting the block occupied by the Library of Congress. The house is a three-story and basement structure, containing eleven rooms and bath. The price paid was $7,500. Mr. Queen will remodel the house for his own residence.

Thomas J. Fisher & Co. also announce the sale of the third of five houses which Lewis E. Breuninger erected on Monroe street, between Thirtieth and Fourteenth streets northwest. A. G. Nichols is the purchaser of the house, and paid $6,250.
The houses are not yet under roof.

Barney & Children have sold the property at 104 R street southeast, fronting the block occupied by the Library of Congress. The house has eight rooms, and will be held by the purchaser as an investment. The price paid was $3,300.

Stones & Fairfax recently sold the double brick house at 151 S street northwest, at the corner of Second street. This house was erected about five years ago by the present owner, S. A. Rouff, who disposes of it at $6,500 to a purchaser who will occupy it as a residence.

Stones & Fairfax also announce the sale for Mrs. M. E. Haines of the two-story house at 135 Heckman street southeast, and for G. P. Seitz a similar house at 638 E street southeast. The purchasers paid $2,300 each for the houses.

The same firm has sold for James Robbins the three-story and cellar brick residence, 1416 N street northwest. The house fronts 31 feet by a depth of 127 feet. The consideration was $12,000.

Sales by Moore & Hill.
Moore & Hill Company announce the sale, for Mrs. Julia Copenhaver, to William N. Morrison, the premises at 1630, 1632, and 1638 Montello avenue, which will be held by the purchaser as an investment.

The same company sold three lots on Newark street, Cleveland Park, for Rozier Duluthy, trustee, to L. W. Peet. The combined frontage of the lots is 74 feet, by a depth of 240 feet. Mr. Peet will soon erect upon the site a residence for his own use, at a cost of about $10,000.

C. H. Fielding has sold through Moore & Hill the three-story brick dwelling, 463 Florida avenue northwest. The purchaser, J. E. Wagoner, will hold the property as an investment.

Nathaniel Wilson has conveyed to Senator Wetmore, of Rhode Island, the property on the south side of Massachusetts avenue, between Twenty-second street and Sheridan circle. The ground is improved, and has a frontage of 82 feet on the avenue, extending through to Q street. It is Senator Wetmore's intention to erect a residence on the lot for his personal use.

W. Kells has purchased the three-story and cellar brick house at 1406 Columbia street northwest. The house has a frontage of 40 feet, the interior being planned with a central hallway and rooms on either side. It was built by E. A. Neuman several years ago, at a cost of about $45,000. Mr. Kells intends to retain the property for an investment.

Snyder, of this city. The house is nearly new, and has been occupied by Mr. Cochran since it was built, a few years ago.
Mrs. Snyder paid $6,000 for the property, and will occupy it as her home.

James J. Lampton, formerly of the firm of Early & Lampton, has incorporated the remainder of the building under the laws of Virginia, and opened new offices at 1419 G street, where he will engage in a general real estate business.

Mr. Lampton announces the sale, for Joseph W. Harper to Dr. Harnett G.
Dyar, of the Winchester apartment house, at 1933 Eighteenth street northwest, for $5,000. This apartment was built by Mr. Harper about three years ago. It stands on a lot 44 by 80 feet and is three stories high. It is built of brick, with stone trimmings.

George W. Vanderbilt has rented his house, at 1707 New Hampshire avenue, for the remainder of the summer to G.
Kaufman, a prominent Michigan banker.
This transaction was made through the office of Frederic May.

Notes on Building.
Chief interest in building operation during the week centered in the choice of the architect for the new home planned by the labor unions of the District to be known as the "Temple of Labor," or possibly "Temple of Industrial Arts." The architect chosen is Dore Wolfstetter, who describes the proposed building as one of the finest structures projected for the National Capital. The building will be in the French style, seven stories in height, and detached on all sides. It is estimated to cost about $1,000,000. The exterior will probably be of white marble, similar to that used in the construction of some of the public buildings in Washington.

Mr. Wolfstetter was selected chiefly because he is a member of organized labor and affiliated with the American Federation of Laborers, a musician of note and an architect by profession.

Although the site for the new structure has not been officially announced, rumor has it that it will be at the southeast corner of Seventh and E streets.

Spelden & Spelden, architects, have prepared plans for the new home of A. W. S.
Ayers, Jr., on Laurence street, Brookland.
The house will be two stories, with attic and cellar, and will contain eight rooms and bath. The exterior is of pleasing design, in pebble-dash finish, with broad overhanging eaves and slate roof. A feature of the exterior will be a wide porch the full width of the house, with large, well-proportioned columns.

New Home in Southeast.
Spelden & Spelden have also prepared plans for a residence to be built at 132 Kentucky avenue southeast for James White. It will be two stories, with concrete cellar under entire house. The first floor will contain parlor, dining-room, and kitchen, while the second floor will provide four bedrooms and bath.

The Carnegie Institution has taken out a permit for the erection of its administration building at Sixteenth and P streets northwest. The specifications call for a three-story brick structure, estimated to cost $25,000. Carrere & Hastings, of New York, are the architects, and J. E. & A. L. Pennock are the builders.

Charles W. Dyer will erect a two-story frame house at 377 Olive street northwest, at a cost of about $5,000. A.
M. Schneider is the architect, and J. M.
Henderson the builder.

Mary F. Williams will erect a two-story frame house at 338 Connecticut avenue northwest, to cost about $3,000. F. O.
Fletcher prepared the plans and Fred Espey will construct the building.

Lewis E. Breuninger will erect two three-story brick houses at 1756 and 1758 Park road northwest, estimated to cost $13,000. N. R. Grimm, architect, prepared the plans. Mr. Breuninger will build a similar house at 1760 Park road, to cost $8,000.

H. Mattern will erect eight two-story brick houses at 228 to 232 Flager place northwest, estimated to cost $24,000. Hunter & Bell are the architects, and H. J.
Mattern is the builder.

Charles W. King, Jr., will erect four brick and frame houses at 1533 to 1537 Monroe street northwest, estimated to cost $12,000. A. H. Somerman, architect, prepared the plans.

James H. Wood will build a two-story frame house on Delafield place northwest, estimated to cost $6,000. L. G. Herman is the architect, and M. H. Herman the builder.

Mrs. Hufty Withdraws Her Action for Maintenance.

Sudden Termination of Suit Marked by the Payment of All Costs by the Husband.

Mrs. Mary Page Hufty yesterday withdrew the suit for maintenance, which she instituted against her husband, Malcolm Hufty, an attorney, on Thursday.
Mr. Hufty filed with the clerk of the court an order signed by his wife, requesting the dismissal of the suit, and stating it had been "imprudently filed." Mr. Hufty paid all the costs at the clerk's office, and it is understood has arrived at an amicable agreement with his wife.

In her bid, Mrs. Hufty accused her husband of cruelty, nonsupport, and of excessive use of intoxicating liquor. Justice Gould cited the husband to appear on Friday next, and show cause why he should not pay his wife a reasonable sum to support herself and their two infant children, and also enjoining him from interfering or molesting her in any way.
Mrs. Hufty's suit was filed by Attorney Henry E. Davis, who was absent from the city yesterday, and not present when the suit was withdrawn.

McDonnell Refused Saloon License
by Excise Board.

The excise board, at its meeting yesterday, rejected the application of James A.
McDonnell for a retail liquor license at 130 Eleventh street southeast.

Frederick S. Coldren, of the Playgrounds Association, appeared to oppose the license, and said the proposed saloon would be within 200 feet of the public playground.

An application for the renewal of a barroom license at 18 First street southeast, by Martin Grogan, was taken under consideration by the board.

CAMPAIGN IS SUCCESSFUL.

Proof of Epworth League's Growth Is Furnished.

That the Epworth League of Union Methodist Episcopal Church is growing is evidenced by the fact that after a campaign of two weeks for new members, the membership was augmented to about twice its original number. The league officers gave a social and entertainment on Friday night in honor of the recruits. Milburn the Mysterious was the feature of the occasion. His clever palmistry and wonderful execution of his original look and seal coat, which trick he performed before President Roosevelt and family, were greeted with prolonged applause. Mr. L. Garner scored a hit in his original composition entitled, "Pork."

Other features of the programme were as follows: Recitation, Miss Calahan; piano solo, Miss Cranston; trio, Miss White and Messrs. Snyder and Hersberg; recitation, Mrs. Kunkle; solo, Miss Steiner; recitation, Miss Wolf; selections, by Mr. Garner and Milburn the Mysterious.

LECTURES AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Hamilton W. Mable Will Be Heard This Afternoon.

Hamilton W. Mable, editor of The Outlook, New York City, is the guest of Thomas Nelson Page, and is announced as speaker under the auspices of the Washington Young Men's Christian Association this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on "The higher uses of business."

Mr. Mable arrived in Washington yesterday afternoon, and will make only one public address while he is here. It is understood a special invitation has been extended to the business men of the city, including the members of the Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce, to hear the address of Mr. Mable, which will deal with a subject directly related to the city's modern commercial life.

The Washington Chorus Club of sixty voices, under the direction of Mr. Palmer, will give a musical programme, beginning at 3 o'clock.
